

news

APRIL 3, 2008
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Unitus Community Credit Union Celebrates
New Branch with Ribbon Cutting Ceremony

PORTLAND, Ore. (Apr. 3, 2008) – Unitus Community Credit Union will celebrate the opening of its seventh branch with a ribbon cutting ceremony on Wednesday, April 16 at 11:00 a.m. The new branch is located at 1855 NW 188th Avenue. Unitus President and CEO, Patricia Smith will cut the ribbon that will officially open the branch. The ceremony will also be attended by members of the Beaverton Chamber of Commerce, Unitus staff and management, members of the Unitus Board of Directors and staff from The Good Neighbor Center; the designated community partner for the Tanasbourne branch.

The new branch will employ six people and will be managed by Jorjia Fields. Fields joins Unitus from Postal Federal Community Credit Union in Springfield, Missouri where she was previously a Branch Manager. “We are proud to be part of such a supportive community, and as a credit union, we look forward to serving our neighbors and giving back to the Tanasbourne area through our strong commitment to community involvement,” said Fields.

The Tanasbourne branch will feature a complete line of deposit and loan products and services, a tech center for personal and educational research, financial planning services and an ATM machine.

About Unitus Community Credit Union:

Unitus Community Credit Union is a not-for-profit, member-owned financial institution serving people living or working in Multnomah, Washington, Clackamas, Marion, Polk, Yamhill and Clark County. Additional information about Unitus is available at www.unitusccu.com or by calling (800) 452-0900.

###