FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Unitus Community Credit Union Named Among Top Mortgage Lenders in Oregon & SW Washington

Recognition highlights Unitus' continued growth in home lending and support for local homebuyers

Tigard, Ore., July 30 2025 – Unitus Community Credit Union is proud to announce its ranking as one of the largest residential mortgage lending firms in Oregon and Southwest Washington for its 2024 home loan volume, as recognized by the Portland Business Journal Book of Lists.

This recognition reflects Unitus' ongoing commitment to helping members achieve the dream of homeownership through trusted guidance, competitive products, and personalized service. The rankings were based on firm-submitted data and compiled by the Portland Business Journal in partnership with the Richey May HMDA Market Share Dashboard.

"We're honored to be recognized among the region's leading mortgage lenders," said Steven Stapp, President and CEO of Unitus Community Credit Union. "This recognition reflects our team's dedication to helping members through every life-defining moment, especially buying a home in our communities."

Unitus was ranked 5th in this year's list, jumping up 14 spots from 2024. The ranking highlights Unitus' $88.52 million in home loans last year, allowing 466 borrowers to purchase homes in Oregon and Southwest Washington.

The ranking comes as Unitus advances its Social Responsibility Commitment to fund $50 million in home loans by the end of 2027. This commitment aims to increase access to affordable homeownership for first-time buyers, low-to-moderate income households, and members who have historically faced barriers in the housing market.

Unitus remains focused on expanding access to affordable home loans across Oregon and Southwest Washington, offering a range of options tailored to the unique needs of each borrower and delivered with the credit union's signature member-first approach.
