Woodburn, Ore., November 17, 2025 – Unitus Community Credit Union has opened the Unitus Financial Resource Center at Woodburn, expanding bilingual financial services and community resources for families, small businesses, and local partners. Located at 2951 Stacy Allison Way in Woodburn, the new facility includes a Unitus branch that is open for walk-in service only until appointment scheduling becomes available in early December. Designed as a shared space for collaboration and education, the Unitus Financial Resource Center at Woodburn brings together branch services, community programming, financial education, lending support, small business resources, administrative offices, and tenant spaces that help support the long-term financial health of the credit union. The building was intentionally created with

The Unitus Financial Resource Center provides a wide range of multilingual support, including staff who speak Spanish, German, and Lao. This team builds upon Unitus' mission as a Juntos Avanzamos credit union, where cultural responsiveness, personalized service, and financial inclusion guide every interaction.
