The use of your account or uOnline services are subject to the following conditions:

a. Access Device. Any access device that we supply to you is our property and must be returned to us, or to any person whom we authorize to act as our agent, or to any person who is authorized to honor the access device, immediately according to instructions. You cannot transfer your access device or account to another person.

b. Illegal Use or Internet Gambling. You may not use your account or the uOnline service for any illegal or unlawful transaction, and we may decline to authorize any transaction that we believe poses an undue risk of illegality or unlawfulness. You agree that all transactions that you initiate by use of an EFT are legal in the jurisdiction where you live and/or where the transaction occurred. Internet gambling may be illegal in the jurisdiction in which you are located, including the United States. Your electronic funds transfers may only be conducted for legal transactions. Display of a payment card logo by an online merchant does not mean that internet gambling transactions are lawful in all jurisdictions in which you may be located. We have restricted all online gambling transactions by use of an EFT.

c. Security of Access Code. The password that you select is for your security purposes. The password is confidential and should not be disclosed to third parties or recorded. You are responsible for safekeeping your password. You agree not to disclose or otherwise make your password available to anyone not authorized to sign on your accounts. If you authorize anyone to have or use your password, you understand that person may use the Online Banking Service to review all of your account information and make account transactions. Therefore, we are entitled to act on transaction instructions received using your password and you agree that the use of your password will have the same effect as your signature authorizing transactions.

If you authorize anyone to use your password in any manner, that authority will be considered unlimited in amount and manner until you specifically revoke such authority by notifying Unitus and changing your password immediately. You are responsible for any transactions made by such persons until you notify us that transactions and access by that person are no longer authorized and your password is changed. If you fail to maintain or change the security of these passwords and Unitus suffers a loss, we may terminate your EFT and account services immediately.

4. Member Liability.

You are responsible for all transfers you authorize using your EFT services under this Agreement. If you permit other persons to use the uOnline Service, Mobile Banking Service, or password you are responsible for any transactions they authorize or conduct on any of your accounts. Tell us at once if you believe anyone has used your account or password and accessed your accounts without your authority or if you believe that an EFT has been made without your permission using information from your check. Telephoning is the best way of keeping your possible losses down. For uOnline Service or Mobile Banking Service transactions, if you tell us of the unauthorized use of your account within two (2) business days, you can lose no more than $50 if someone accessed your account without your permission. If you do not tell us within two (2) business days after you learn of the unauthorized use of your account or EFT service, and we can prove that we could have stopped someone from accessing your account without your permission if you had told us, you could lose as much as $500. Also, if your statement shows uOnline Service or Mobile Banking Service transactions that you did not make including those made by password or other means, tell us at once. If you do not tell us within sixty (60) days after the statement was mailed to you, you may be liable for the following amounts if we can prove that we could have stopped someone from making the transfers if you had told us in time: for all uOnline Service or Mobile Banking Service transactions -- up to the full amount of the loss. If a good reason (such as a hospital stay) kept you from telling us, we will extend the time periods.

a. As necessary to complete transfers;

- b. To verify the existence of sufficient funds to cover specific transactions upon the request of a third party merchant;
- c. To comply with government agency or court orders;
- d. If you give us your express permission.

9. Credit Union Liability for Failure to Make Transfers.

If we do not complete a transfer to or from your account on time or in the correct amount according to our agreement with you, we will be liable for your losses or damages. Our sole responsibility is for an error and in no case will we be liable for any indirect, special, or incidental damages. However, there are some exceptions. We will not be liable, for instance:

- a. If, through no fault of ours, you do not have enough money in your account to make the transfer or the transfer would go over the credit limit on your line of credit, if applicable.
- b. If you used the wrong password or you have not properly followed any applicable computer, or Unitus user instructions for making transfer and Bill Payment transactions.
- c. If your computer fails or malfunctions or the Telephone Express Teller, Mobile Banking, or Online Banking Services (uOnline) were not properly working and such problem should have been apparent when you attempted such transaction.
- d. If circumstances beyond our control (such as fire, flood, telecommunication outages, postal strikes, equipment or power failure) prevent making the transaction.
- e. If the funds in your account are subject to an administrative hold, legal process, or other claim.
- f. If you have not given Unitus complete, correct, and current instructions so the Credit Union can process a transfer or Bill Payment.
- g. If there are other exceptions as established by Unitus.
- h. If, through no fault of ours, a Bill Payment or funds transfer transaction does not reach a particular payee due to changes in the payee address, account number, or otherwise; the time you allow for payment delivery was inaccurate; or the payee failed to process a payment correctly, or in a timely manner, and a fee, penalty, or interest is assessed against you.
- i. If the error was caused by a system beyond the Credit Union's control such as a telecommunications system, an ISP, any computer virus, or problems related to software not provided by Unitus.

10. Termination of uOnline or Mobile Banking Services.

You agree that we may terminate this agreement and your use of uOnline service or Mobile Banking Service and the use of your card, if you or any authorized user of your password breach this or any other agreement with us; or if we have reason to believe that there has been an unauthorized use of your password or account. You or any other party to your account can terminate this agreement by notifying us in writing. Termination of service will be effective the first business day following receipt of your written notice. Termination of this agreement will not affect the rights and responsibilities of the parties under this agreement for transactions initiated before termination.

11. Notices.

Unitus reserves the right to change the terms and conditions upon which this service is offered. Unitus will provide you with notice at least twenty-one (21) days before the effective date of any change, as required by law.

12. Transaction Errors.

In case of errors or questions about your uOnline service or Mobile Banking Service transactions, telephone us at the phone numbers or write us at the address set forth above as soon as you can. We must hear from you no later than sixty (60) days after we sent the first statement on which the problem appears.

- a. Tell us your name and account number.
- b. Describe the transaction you are unsure about and explain as clearly as you can why you believe it is an error or why you need more information.
- c. Tell us the dollar amount of the suspected error.

We will tell you the results of our investigation within ten (10) business days after we hear from you and will correct any error promptly. For errors related to transactions occurring within thirty (30) days after the first deposit to the account (new accounts), we will tell you the results of our investigation within twenty (20) business days. If we need more time, however, we may take up to forty-five (45) calendar days to investigate your complaint or question (ninety (90) calendar days for new account transaction errors, or errors involving transactions initiated outside the United States). If we decide to do this, we will credit your account within ten (10) business days for the amount you think is in error, so that you will have the use of the money during the time it takes us to complete our investigation. If we ask you to put your complaint or question in writing and we do not receive it within ten (10) business days, we may not credit your account.

If we decide after our investigation that an error did not occur, we will deliver or mail to you an explanation of our findings within three (3) business days after the conclusion of our investigation. If you request, we will provide you copies of documents (to the extent possible without violating other members' rights to privacy) relied upon to conclude that the error did not occur.

13. Enforcement.

You agree to be liable to Unitus for any liability, loss, or expense as provided in this agreement that the Credit Union incurs as a result of any dispute involving your accounts or services. You authorize Unitus to deduct any such liability, loss, or expense from your account without prior notice to you. This agreement shall be governed by and construed under the laws of the State of Oregon as applied to contracts entered into solely between residents of, and to be performed entirely in, such state. In the event either party brings a legal action to enforce the agreement or collect any overdrawn funds on accounts accessed under this agreement, the prevailing party shall be entitled, subject to Oregon law, to payment by the other party of its reasonable attorney's fees and costs, including fees on any appeal, bankruptcy proceedings, and any post-judgment collection actions, if applicable. Should any one or more provisions of this agreement be determined illegal or unenforceable in any relevant jurisdiction, then such provision be modified by the proper court, if possible, but only to the extent necessary to make the provision enforceable and such modification shall not affect any other provision of this agreement.
